Fall's Ahead and so are Classes @ Artisan Studio

We always like to keep it fresh at Artisan, adding and changing things up a bit to keep our classes interesting and challenging for our students. The staff and I are committed to inspiring our students with new trends and subjects that we believe will be enjoyable for them. Indoor activities return with opportunities to try something new for kids that want to explore art, increase their skills, or just enjoy themselves at a non-competitive activity where they can meet new friends that share their interest.

There is often a misconception that kids need to be artistic, or 'talented' to enjoy art. That really is untrue; the only 'need to be' is open-minded and willing to try something new that may benefit them in many ways including academically. Art is so closely tied in to math, language and science; the staff and I always try to demonstrate the connections as often as possible so our students may have a deeper understanding of those relationships and and their importance.

Our youngest students enjoy our Young Artisans and KinderArt classes which introduce them to working in many different mediums such as markers, pastels, watercolors and acrylic. These projects are on the messy side which for some children are not encouraged at home for that exact reason. At Artisan, we love the mess as the children immerse themselves in their work, enjoying the paint and pastel smudged on their hands and faces, a sign of their enjoyment (clothes are protected by smocks which are always provided). For kids ages 6 & older we have many choices of mediums and subjects in Basic Drawing, Drawing /Painting Kids, Famous Artists, Multi Cultural Arts, Papier Mache and more. Middle and high school students can benefit from Fashion Design &

Sewing, Teen Drawing & Painting, and our very talented and advanced teens participate in our Portfolio Prep class during their junior and senior years.

Fashion Design & Illustration - Ages 10-14, Saturdays 12-1:30 pm. This class is structured to give young fashionistas the experience of designing clothing and accessories, learning to illustrate fashion figures, fabric and more. If you child is thinking about a possible future in the fashion industry, this is the perfect introduction, instructed by Ms. Gail who has 30+ years of NYC experience in this field.

Beyond Scrapbooks - Adults, Wednesdays 10 am-12 p.m. If you enjoy crafts such as scrap-booking and collage, but also would love to try something in mixed-media that is more creative and not in typical 'scrapbook' form, this class is for you! Starting in mid October, we offer this truly unique class in which to explore and further develop your creativity.

Anime & Manga - Ages 10-14, Saturdays 10-11:30 am. We've brought our Anime & Manga class back!It's a great class for students who want to increase their skills in cartooning and animation techniques in this very appealing and distinctive style which appeals to the 'tweens' age group. Ms. Ashley and her creative energy will be back this fall, as we all look forward to sharing our passion and knowledge with our students.

Please visit our website or feel free to call us for further info!

OLD RUSM: Let's Step Back

When gold was discovered in California by James Marshall in 1848, everyone wanted a piece of the action. People came from all over the world-from the East Coast of the United States and all the way from China-to seek their fortunes to the "gold fields." But sometimes riches could be made not in gold but in the jobs people did for the miners, such as blacksmithing or selling tools. The Gold Rush brought thousands of people to California and helped to establish the state.

Describe what you think life was like for people in 1848 and how it compares to life today.

Did you know September 26th is Johnny Appleseed Day?

Johnny Appleseed Day honors one of America's great legends. Johnny Appleseed was a real person. John Chapman was among the American settlers who were captivated by the movement west across the continent. As Johnny Appleseed traveled west, he planted apple trees along the way, and sold trees to settlers. With every apple tree that was planted, the legend grew.

Lets honor Mr. Appleseed with two amazing apple recipes:

APPLE-STUFFED PORK CHOPS

6 rib pork chops, 2 inches thick

1 tsp. salt

1/8 tsp. pepper 3 Tblsp. butter

5 Tblsp. chopped onion

1 1/2 cups dry bread crumbs

1 large green apple

5 Tblsp. seedless raisins

1/2 tsp. nutmeg

1/4 tsp. cinnamon

2-3 Tblsp. water

Split the chops through the middle from the outer edge toward the bone, leaving meat attached to the bone. Open like a book and pound both sides thin with a mallet. Season the chops with 1/2 of the salt and the pepper. Saute the onion and bread crumbs in butter in a heavy skillet. Add the apple slices, raisins, remaining salt, nutmeg, cinnamon, and water. Mix together well and spread the dressing in even portions on the chops. Fold over and fasten with toothpicks. Heat oven to 350 degrees and bake for 1 1/2 hours or until tender. Turn once during baking time and drain off excess fat. Serves 6.

EASY APPLE DELIGHTS

Ingredients:

1 pkg. Pillsbury Dinner Rolls 1Tblsp. applesauce

Pinch of cinnamon

Press out each roll into square shape, add 1 tablespoon applesauce, fold to turnover shape and bake at 400 degrees for 3 or 4 minutes.

APPLE PORCUPINE

Ingredients:

1½ cups sugar, 1½ cups water, Jelly, marmalade or preserved fruit, 8 apples, almonds (blanched or split), Whipped Cream

Boil sugar and water 7 minutes. Wipe, pare and core apples. Cook in syrup to cover until soft, occasionally skimming. Drain, cool, fill with jelly, and stick with almonds. Served wiith whipped cream.

Not only is dancing fun for children, it also teaches many valuable skills.

Dancing is fun for children, a good form of exercise and teaches many valuable skills. For example, dancing exposes children to different styles of music, provides a means to express oneself and introduces children to new ways to move their bodies. Just as Angelina is constantly plié-ing, pirouetting and jeté-ing with exuberance, your child may find a new creative outlet through the activities listed below.

DO A RIBBON DANCE

Have your child hold a towel, blanket, or large scarf. Encourage him or her to wave the scarf around while twisting, turning, and "flying," like a colorful butterfly.

SEE REAL DANCERS IN ACTION

Take your child to watch a local dance performance or class. Afterwards, ask your child what he or she liked best about watching the dancers. Can your child imitate some of the moves?

CELEBRITY INTERVIEW

Give your little dancer the star treatment! Put on your reporter's hat and interview the famous dancer for an exclusive article in the The Mouse-land Herald.

Questions can include:

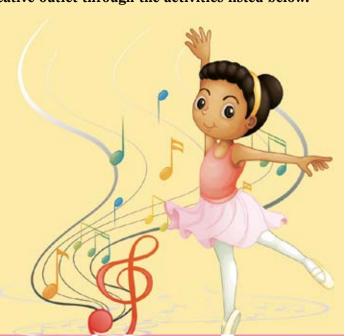

What is your favorite dance? What is your favorite type of music?

KEED THE DEAT

Turn on the radio and choose a station (rock, classical, or jazz are fun!) Show your child how to keep the beat by clapping. Turn to a different station. Does the beat change? Let your child try keeping the beat with foot taps, finger snaps and his or her whole body!

FREEZE DANCE

Play music and encourage children to dance along. When the music stops, children should freeze in position until the music starts again.

What are teeth?

Teeth are structures in the upper and lower jaws of human beings and many kinds of animals including other mammals and fish. They are the hardest part of the body. They are something like bone, but they are harder than bone.

Animals use their teeth for chewing food to get ready for swallowing and digesting. Some meat eating animals use their teeth to capture the food. People use their teeth to bite and chew food. If we did not have teeth, people could not eat food that needs to be chewed. We would only be able to eat soft foods and drink liquids. Teeth also help us to speak clearly.

How many teeth do we have?

Human beings grow two sets of teeth. The first set is called the baby teeth, or milk teeth. The teeth start growing before the baby is born, but they cut through the gums at about 6 months old. Children have 20 baby teeth by the time they are two years old. Adults have 32 teeth. We begin to loose our baby teeth when we are about 4 or 5 years old. By the time we are 18 we usually have all of our teeth.

Are the teeth in my mouth different from one another?

Incisor - Your four front teeth on the top and on the bottom are incisors. These are the biting teeth. They have a sharp, straight, cutting edge.

Canine - A canine tooth is a cuspid. It has a single pointed cusp or bump. The canine teeth are used to tear pieces of food. The edge of the canine tooth is sharp and pointed. This tooth has one root. The canine tooth is also called a cuspid or dogtooth.

Premolars - These teeth are called the grinding teeth. They do not have sharp points, but they do have cusps. The cusps help to crush pieces of food. The premolars teeth are wide and have one or two roots.

Molars - Molars are stronger grinding teeth. They look like premolars, but they are a little bigger. These teeth have two or three roots. Molars are found in the back of your mouth. They are used to grind food.

Guide to Getting Along

Someone took your seat at lunch or pushed ahead of you in line. Your best friend wants you to let her cheat off your test paper. A guy in math class called you... something not so nice.

Sometimes it seems like life is a sea of problems — and your ship is sinking.

In every situation, everyone sees things differently and wants to do things their way. And it's normal for people to believe they are right, which leads to disagreements. Problems are never fun — but they can help you to have a good discussion and you can work things out. Clearing the air will help you learn more about your friends, your family,...even yourself. Solving problems in the right way also can help you get through them quickly and easily, and stop them from getting out of control, or even violent.

If sparks do start to fly, you have the power to put out the fire. The next time you have an issue on your hands, don't explode or let someone walk all over you. Instead, convince them to try the BAM!plan with you.

Tips to Keep Your Anger From Boiling Over

- 1. Take some deep breaths and concentrate on relaxing your body with each breath.
- 2. Count to 10 slowly.
- 3. Think before you react what are consequences of your actions?
- 4. Keep your voice "low and slow."
- 5. Split the scene. Remove yourself from the situation leave the room for a minute or take a short walk.
